

“DOG TRAINING THAT WORKS!”

Order your DVD today!

See dogs learning all the basics and some fancy tricks, too! Rude dogs, pushy dogs, loud and even aggressive dogs become sweet, polite and happy in Deborah's hands.

You see it all on this two-set DVD!

knocking people flying and wrestling with each other. And they'll be amazed at seeing naughty dogs transformed to happy polite dogs right before their eyes!

You'll see the methods we use here at Camp Good Dog in action. You may even recognize some doggie faces. In fact, you may spot your own dog in one or two segments! All the dogs used in the DVD were doggie campers here at Camp Good Dog, ready and willing to make their television debut! Please check out the Dog Cast listing in this newsletter to determine if your dog was featured.

"Dog Training that Works!" covers everything a good dog must know, including Come, Sit, Heel, Walk Nicely, Greetings plus Manners with Kids and Cats. You watch as different dogs with different naughty traits get schooled in Deborah's bestselling, fun and loving way.

You can even give this DVD set as a gift for someone with a not-so-good dog. They won't be insulted since it comes with a second disk of the doggie fun that went along with the making of this movie – the romps, the bloopers, the dogs-gone-wild moments, and dog sports, too! Dog lovers and owners of all ages will laugh out loud at the dogs stealing food,

New Rainbow Bridge Area:

Down by the river, deep in the forest, lies the Rainbow Bridge, where pets go when they die. Dogs and cats get to the bridge and are returned to their former healthy selves. Lamé dogs can run. Old cats are young again. And they hunt and play waiting for the special day when their families will come to meet them.

Bridge area, walk through the tall trees, look for spawning salmon, and listen to the river as you remember.

When it is your turn to die you too will be welcome at the Rainbow Bridge and when you get there you will feel young and healthy once again. Your pets will be there to greet you and together you will cross the bridge together, never to be separated again.

The Rainbow Bridge poem is an animal lover's version of heaven. It is a myth that many of us hope is true. Here at Camp Good Dog we've decorated our own Rainbow Bridge area with memorials; statues, leashes, tags, ashes, photos and owners' keepsakes of their pets. We invite you to visit our Rainbow

In this Issue

New Release: " Dog Training that Works!"	1
New Rainbow Bridge Area	2
Agility Equipment for Busy Dogs	2
Making of the DVD Movie	2
Dog Cast	2
Maple Ridge Times Column	2
Website Changes	2

CAMP GOOD DOG BOARDING & TRAINING INC.

Camp Good Dog! Winter 2005

The Rainbow Bridge poem is an animal lover's version of heaven

NO HUMANS WERE HURT IN THE MAKING OF THIS MOVIE:

We made a movie here at Camp Good Dog and no one got hurt. You may find that hard to believe when you see Roxy the Golden send Martin flying off his feet, but it's true. We had a blast making this movie and that is in part due to the fact that your dogs did such a good job! Shooting days were scheduled around the technical crew's forever shifting times and dates, and the weather, which was also forever shifting. This meant that we had to select dogs that happened to be here and work with what we had. Authentic, natural, real dogs. Not actors. Not superstars. Family dogs. YOUR DOGS!

WE also had help from a few owners who joined us for a free day of lessons on July 4, 2004. I am very grateful to the following people: Martin & Jan (owners of Cleo), Michelle (owner of Myla), Ruth (owner of Lucy), Bo Parker's dad, Kava's & Fritz' mom, Sunday Apchkrum, Carrie Biero, Taryn and of course Rick.

Special appearances were made by two Goodles, Harley and Freddy, to show off the gorgeously cute puppies we'll be breeding here at Camp Good Dog from our own Golden female and Poodle male, this spring. Thanks to their owners for letting us collect them on short notice. Our cast and extras included about 100 dogs of every type from the tiny min pins to the giant mastiffs, two grumpy cats and three amazing kids: Kaidin and Kendall McNabb plus Deb and Rick's son, Ari.

The result of all this hard work is phenomenal. The DVD set, "Dog Training that Works!" is fun to watch and exciting with lots of real doggie bloopers and great touching moments. It will show you what your dog really gets up to at Camp Good Dog!

Photo by Colin Andre

AGILITY EQUIPMENT FOR BUSY DOGS:

Jumps, barrels and tunnels are set up in the back field now for your pets to enjoy whenever they visit camp. Some of the dogs learn as they are guided over the pieces on-leash, then off-leash with lots of praise and rewards. Others incorporate the jumps and poles into their own chase games adding great jumps and leaps to their usual romps. They love it!

DOG CAST:

"DOG TRAINING THAT WORKS" was filmed July through October 2004 here at Camp Good Dog. It features the following dogs (roughly in the order they appear):

Squeak, Thump, Vegas, Licorice, Nikki (Golden), Tucker (Basset), Chaos, Bella (lab), Sasha (Malamute), Kandy, Roxy (Golden), Dante (puppy), Rocky (Shepherd), Jade, Sophie, Jazz, Myla, Flash, Cleo, Lucy (K.Charles), Kody (Aus. Shep), Cody (Terrier), Roxy (Lab), Koda (Visla), Benji, Dizzy, Nala, Shadow, River & Chaos, J & M, Fritz & Kava, Jazmine, Cheeka, Shadow, Koda, Harley, Freddy and Bo.

All of the dogs featured or shown in the DVD were playing themselves with one exception. During the filming there were two black labs at Camp, both named Case, one male and one female. The female Case is the one shown in the DVD in many different sections, but unfortunately she was referred to as a 'he' early on and the editors said we had to stick with it. So for the filming of this DVD Case the girl was acting as Case "the boy". My apologies to Case's family for the accidental gender switch.

MAPLE RIDGE TIMES

Every month you can read Deborah Wolfe's training advice and pet news in the Maple Ridge Times Pet pages or wait a few days and find it on our own website, www.campgooddog.com. Check out Deborah's December pet column on holiday safety and manners for pets, and keep your furry friends safe and happy!

Website Changes

We constantly update our website with new articles on training and pet news, plus new radio shows indexed by subject and date. Find the right solution to your pet problem easily or just listen or read the latest posting.

In the New Year we'll add mini clips from "Dog Training that Works!" so you can see it work for yourself and order a copy for a dog lover you know!

CAMP GOOD DOG

Phone:
604-515-2267
604-515-CAMP

E-mail: info@campgooddog.com

Website: <http://www.campgooddog.com>

SEND YOUR DOG TO CAMP!